EVR Holdings plc
(“EVR” or the “Company”)

Confirmation of successful fundraise of £5 million

Total Voting Rights

EVR (AIM: EVRH), one of the leading creators of virtual reality content, announces that, further to the announcement made on 6 June 2017 entitled "Accelerated Bookbuild to raise gross proceeds of approximately £5 million and change of Nominated Adviser and Broker", the Company has raised gross proceeds of £5 million through the successful placing of 62,500,000 Placing Shares at a price of 8 pence per new Ordinary Share. The Placing Price represents a discount of 4.5 per cent. to the closing price on 6 June 2017 being the latest practicable date prior to the date of this announcement.

Application will be made to the London Stock Exchange for the 62,500,000 Placing Shares to be admitted to trading on AIM at 8.00 a.m. on 13 June 2017 ("Admission"). Once Admission occurs, the Placing will have successfully completed. Upon completion of the Placing, the Placing Shares will represent approximately 6.12 per cent. of the Enlarged Share Capital.

The net proceeds of the Placing of approximately £4.7 million will be used to make further investments into the Company's original content library as well as to extend the capacity of its live music capture and digital content creation capabilities both in the UK and overseas, expanding upon existing resources and infrastructure, increasing global marketing efforts as well as research and development in areas such as post production and camera technology.

Zeus Capital Limited, the Company's Nominated Adviser and Broker, acted as sole bookrunner in connection with the Placing.

Anthony Matchett, CEO of EVR, commented:

“Since listing, EVR has delivered on a number of strategic milestones, including global partnerships with Warner Music Group and Universal Music Group. MelodyVR was founded with the simple vision of enabling music fans across the globe to connect with the artists they love via next-generation technologies, enabling consumers to virtually stand on stage at any concert or in the recording studio with their favourite artists.

“Having founded the business three years ago, the VR market today is near incomparable. Hardware manufacturers such as Facebook, Samsung, Sony, Microsoft and Google have all shipped VR hardware and many are in the process of launching new or updated VR devices. Over the last three years, we’ve seen VR user numbers increase from under 200,000 prototype devices to over 7.5 million units worldwide. Mark Zuckerberg recently said that he believes “VR is the next major computing and communication platform” and looking ahead to the next three years, market research estimates that there will be over 225 million VR devices in consumer hands. Just as MTV conquered with video in the 90s and Spotify has redefined music consumption throughout the last decade, MelodyVR’s goal is to deliver the next-generation of music content to fans.

“The proceeds of this successful placing will be used to fuel the global expansion of our business, to reach more artists, more partners and in turn, more consumers. We’ll be investing further capital into our original content as we seek to grow our vast library of once-in-a-lifetime experiences. We believe that as the market develops and consumer appetite for VR content increases, we’re perfectly positioned to deliver consumers the best in immersive music experiences via our hardware agnostic VR music platform.

“We’ll be investing into additional resourcing and staff on a global basis, aiming to attract even more of the best talent in the UK, as well as throughout US offices in Los Angeles, New York, Miami and Nashville, as well as in other music industry epicentres, worldwide.

“As part of this announcement, I’m pleased to announce the promotion of Nikki Lambert to the role of Chief Marketing Officer. Nikki, formerly of the Virgin Group and more recently Spotify, has proven invaluable since joining the company last year. As we progress towards launch we’ll be committing further resources into marketing throughout Europe and the US, building upon our strategy of amplifying artists, labels and hardware partners as they talk about our platform and content, with a series of unique promotional campaigns.

“Over the coming months, our aim is to further extend our market leading position by closing partnerships with all three of the world’s major record labels, having already secured deals with two - Universal Music Group and Warner Music Group, and by entering agreements with music publishers, collection societies and performance rights organisations as well as hardware partners on a worldwide basis, enhancing the opportunities for deployment of the MelodyVR platform across the globe.

“I am delighted with the support that we have had from our existing institutional investor and I am pleased to welcome new institutional investors to our shareholder register. We’d like to thank all of our investors, partners and team for believing that MelodyVR can deliver a new, meaningful and long term revenue stream for the music industry.”

Additional information on the Placing

1. Background to and reasons for the Placing and use of proceeds

MelodyVR was formed to capitalise on the expected wave of virtual reality ("VR") hardware which has been released since 2015. MelodyVR recognised that a significant investment had been made in VR hardware, but that would only be a limited amount of VR content available.

Since its admission to AIM on 16 May 2016, the Company has continued building an end-to-end virtual reality content production and distribution business with the vision and consumer proposition to allow music fans to experience a recorded music event or concert, via virtual reality. The Directors believe that MelodyVR's proposition will appeal to many music fans that are unable to attend a live event due to geographical or financial constraints, age restrictions or simply to an event being sold out.

The fundraising will enable MelodyVR to make further investments in its content library as well as to extend the capacity of its live music capture and digital content creation capabilities both in the UK and overseas, expanding upon existing resources and infrastructure, increasing global marketing efforts as well as research and development in areas such as post production and camera technology.

3. Current trading and prospects

The Company announced on 22 December 2016, that it had signed a global framework agreement with Warner Music Group ("WMG") and granted warrants to WMG to subscribe for up to 43,239,926 Ordinary Shares at 4.25 pence per share. On the same day, the Company also announced the launch of the beta version of the MelodyVR app.

The Company continues to follow an aggressive global expansion strategy, focusing heavily on original content creation, content licensing, product development and in as areas of interest such as content analytics, augmented reality and interactive advertising.

Feedback from beta testing of MelodyVR's application, which commenced in December 2016, has proven to be extremely positive and has provided numerous insights into consumer behaviour, leading to several refinements to the platform's user experience.

In order to further increase worldwide production capabilities and in-line with the Company's 2017 growth strategy, the Company intends to open a series of satellite offices throughout Europe, North America and Asia. The offices, opening initially in Los Angeles and New York, will enable the Company to better serve its partners, such as record labels, hardware manufacturers and artists. Following a series of key hires in areas such as marketing, licensing and engineering, the Company now intends to grow its global presence, attracting world-class talent from both the music and technology industries, at both management and director level.

As the VR market matures, MelodyVR will launch its free-of-charge application across the leading VR hardware and devices. The Board believes that the MelodyVR platform, featuring both live and recorded performances from world-renowned artists and musicians, will cater to the growing consumer demand for VR entertainment content and, in turn, generate significant revenues for the group post-launch.

To date, MelodyVR has created thousands of hours of interactive VR experiences featuring over 526 international recording artists and currently has 72 exclusive partnerships with event and festival brands for VR content creation and distribution, for terms commonly of 5 years (but also up to 25 years).

MelodyVR will pursue its goal of launching what the Board believes will be the leading destination for music in VR and the world's next major music platform.

The Directors believe that the factors set out above all contribute to an extremely positive outlook for the Company and they remain confident in the Company's future performance and growth.

In addition, the Company has agreed to indemnify Zeus Capital (and their affiliates) in relation to certain liabilities which they may incur in respect of the Placing.
